

THE WEATHER

Tonight and Sunday Fair

TONOPAH DAILY BONANZA

METAL QUOTATIONS

Silver	99 1/2c
Copper	26
Lead	7 1-10c
Quicksilver	$119@9420

VOL. XVIII No. 18

TONOPAH, NEVADA, MONDAY EVENING, JULY 8, 1918

PRICE 10 CENTS

AMBASSADOR ASSASSINATED

GERMAN MINISTER, MOSCOW, MURDERED BY REVOLUTIONIST

60 PLANES
SCORE OF
A BELGIANFORMER MOTORCYCLIST LEADS THE ALLIES WITH AIR
RESULTS

(By Associated Press.)
BELGIAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, June 27th.—(Correspondence Associated Press.)—Jan Ollieslager, a Belgian aviator, has been credited with downing sixty German airplanes since the war. Ollieslager has been a leader of air fighters. Before taking up aviation he was a racing motorcyclist, creating many of the world's records on the continent.

RAID IN VOSGES
BY THE YANKSSLIGHT DIVERSION TO BREAK
THE MONOTONY OF THE
SABBATH IN FRANCE

(By Associated Press.)
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, July 8.—Although the enemy front continues in a state of tension in expectation of a renewal of the German drive, the enemy effort has not yet developed. Comparative quiet prevailed in all American sectors last night. This morning there has been an increase, however, in aerial activity, chiefly in patrolling and scouting branches.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Pershing's communique for Sunday was devoted to reporting a successful raid in the Vosges in which losses in killed and wounded and prisoners were inflicted on the enemy. The day passed quietly at other points held by the Americans.

HONORS GRANTED
CATHOLIC PRIESTS

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, July 8.—Premier Georges Clemenceau has a fine appreciation of the war work done by members of the Catholic church. In distributing decorations won at the front, he found before him the other day, Father Laurent, chaplain of the 123rd infantry regiment, who was to receive the cross of the Legion of Honor. In planning the recognition of bravery on the priest's breast, Mr. Clemenceau said:

"Father, I have not the honor of being a Capuchin, but I am sure that you will accept from my hand that which I am bringing you, for it is a cross and it is France which offers it to you."

CHANGES AMONG MILITARY CHIEFS

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Major General Frank McIntyre, chief of the insular bureau and formerly chief military censor, is slated to become principal assistant to General March, chief of staff, and will succeed Major William S. Graves, now assistant chief of staff and head of the executive division of the general staff.

SPANISH GRIP SPREADS
IN SWITZERLAND CAMPS

(By Associated Press.)
HERNE, July 8.—An epidemic of Spanish gripe is spreading over Switzerland. Several deaths have occurred among interned prisoners at Chateau-Dex. The military doctor at Solerne died.

CARRYING WAR
INTO ALBANIA

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, July 8.—(Official)—Italian landed today for 37,000 iron workers. 8th. began operation between the coast and Tomorica valley. The operation is still in full satisfactory development. More than a thousand prisoners so far have been taken by the joint forces. Italian troops yesterday advanced the front line to the region of Collapibile. In the Monte Grappa region the Italians gained further ground northwest of Massali on Saturday. Eight enemy airplanes were destroyed yesterday in air battles.

ADVANCE AGAIN ON THE SOMME

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—(Official)—Troops last night advanced the line astride of the Somme slightly on a front of 3000 yards and several prisoners were taken. German artillery displayed activity in the Somme region during the night. Artillery was similarly active north of Albert, in the vicinity of Beaumont-Hamel and on the Flanders front in the neighborhood of Bethune.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, July 8.—(Official)—Some activity was shown last night by artillery on the westerly side of the Marne salient between the forest of Villiers-Cotteret and the Marne. No infantry engagements took place.

WEATHER BUREAU
MAN PRO GERMAN

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—(Official)—Correspondence made public today disclosed that Cleveland Abbe, Jr., editor of the Monthly Weather Review, recently dropped from the government service, was dismissed because of his well-known sympathy for the imperial German government.

RECRUITS ARE SHY
FOR A DRAFT ORDER

L. E. Glass, clerk of the local exemption board, has been instructed by State Adjutant General Sullivan to have another quota of conscripts ready to entrain about July 22. This presents a new question to the Nye county board which has exhausted its available timber and cannot do anything with the reclassified men until the list is acted on by the state board. The most important change effected recently was the return of a number of men to class F whence they had been taken and placed in class A. Class F consists of friendly aliens, but who cannot be employed in the war under a ruling of the adjutant general at Washington.

36,000 MEN
DEMANDING
MORE WAGE

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Wages increases to meet recent advances in the cost of living are to be demanded today for 36,000 iron workers and ship builders of the San Francisco bay region, according to the announcement by W. E. Burton, president of the Iron Trades Council.

IRISH SPY TRIAL
OPENS IN LONDONUNFOLDING OF A SENSATIONAL
PLOT TO GIVE IRELAND TO GERMANY

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—Trial by court martial of Corporal Joseph Dowling, who landed on the Irish coast in a collapsible boat ten months ago, was opened today. Dowling, in civilian clothes, was brought into court handcuffed, accompanied by armed non-commissioned officers. Three charges are preferred against the man, who is alleged to have joined the Germans while a prisoner and then conspired against England in an Irish plot.

TWO HUN DESERTERS
COMPLAIN TREATMENT

(By Associated Press.)
WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE MARNE, July 8.—Two German deserters crossed into the American lines on the Marne last night. They said they were tired of their fare and ill treatment of their officers, who walked them far and fed them little. One of the deserters was formerly a merchant and the other a farmer.

NEVADA MINING ENGINEER WRITES
FROM SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE

The following letter from Eugene Spedeker to Fred Siebert, manager of the Olympic mine at Omco, near Mina, is one of the strongest appeals ever written to a man in Nevada from one who is in the field and knows what this war means to the whole world. Captain Spedeker was one of the best known mine engineers in the early days of Goldfield and Tonopah and more recently was connected with the Nevada Consolidated in the Ely district. The letter follows:

Somewhere in France,
June 24, 1918.

My Dear Fred:
Our mail arrived for the first time two days ago and your letter was the first received. I cannot tell you how welcome it was, truly you could not have done a nicer thing than write such an interesting and thoughtful letter.

We did not leave America until the 30th of April, so I imagine it has been held here for some time.

Our trips were really more like a summer's cruise than a force going

CASUALTY LIST

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Army: Killed in action, 6; died of wounds, 13; died of accident or other causes, 2; wounded severely, 29, including Private McGraw, of Los Angeles.

FOR DRY NATION
AFTER JAN. 1SENATE COMMITTEE AGREES UPON A BILL TO PROHIBIT THE SALE

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Legislation to prohibit the sale of distilled liquors, wine or beer after January 1, 1919, and prohibit the manufacture of wine or beer after November 1 next was agreed upon today by the senate agriculture committee.

MUST STIMULATE
GOLD PRODUCTION

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—A meeting of gold producers of California to devise ways and means to meet the decrease in the gold output has been called in this city for tomorrow by Ray T. Baker, director of the United States mint, who is visiting here.

WAR COUNCIL DUTIES ARE GIVEN OTHERS

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Secretary Baker today formally abolished the war council, when he turned over its principal functions to Assistant Secretary of War General March, and Major General Goethals, assistant chief of staff, in charge of purchases, storages and traffic.

DEATH OF A PIONEER

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Zoeth Eldredge, aged 73, former state insurance commissioner and a California-Nevada pioneer and historian, died today.

NEVADA MINING ENGINEER WRITES
FROM SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE

to war. Weather was splendid and we had only one sub scare. Our destroyers, who by the way deserve the greatest praise and admiration, made it much too hot for the one who tried to attack us.

After landing, at which point we had to take off our hats when we saw the enormous work some of our men have done in building war

TRAINING TEACHERS TO TRAIN STUDENTS

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—A 60-days' intensive course to train college men as assistant instructors for the students in army training corps will open July 18th at Plattsburg, New York. Fort Sheridan, Illinois, and the Presidio, Cal. Regular army officers will have charge. Members of the faculty as well as students are eligible.

KAISER ENDS TREATY NEGOTIATIONS
COUNTER REVOLUTION ORGANIZED
ANOTHER CRISIS PRECIPITATED

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Fighting took place at Moscow between the Bolshevik forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, German ambassador, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—A series of counter revolutions have broken out in Moscow according to a semi-official Wolff bureau telegram dated Sunday from Moscow. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets

between Bolshevik troops and social revolutionaries. A message received in London today from Moscow, dated Sunday evening, says a counter revolution started in the Russian capital but had been suppressed.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count Mirbach, German ambassador to Russia, according to an exchange dispatch from Russia, he ordered Secretary von Kuehlmann to break off negotiations with the delegates in Berlin.